

Between Forever and Goodbye

Written by Danni Nicholls and Steve O'brien

I've been walking around with a boulder in my shoe
It's been dragging me down but now I know what I must do
I put the whisky away my head is starting to spin
I'm calling you again

Tell me darling please
'Cause I can't let it lie
Whatever happened in between
I'm gonna love you forever and goodbye?

I gave you my heart to keep safe inside
But you stole it away now theres a hole in my chest
Where love used to lie
I tremble and shake but my need outweighs my fear
It's your voice I long to hear

Tell me darling please
'Cause I can't let it lie
Whatever happened in between
I'm gonna love you forever and goodbye?

I'm still holding on
Oh it kills me to know
There's nothing tied on to the end of this rope

Tell me darling please
'Cause I can't let it lie
Whatever happened in between
I'm gonna love you forever and goodbye?
