

Feel Again

Written by Danni Nicholls and Amy Stroup

Since you've gone I've tried to find
A better place some of peace mind
I haven't even cried

Morning comes moving slow
Roll up my sleeves and try to go
Anywhere

When will I feel again?
I don't know, I don't know
When will your shadow fade?
I don't know, I don't know
Someday

The world I knew just disappeared
I tried to fly far from my fears
Its just another distraction
I look myself in the eye
Asking why there's nothing going on inside

When will I feel again?
I don't know, I don't know
When will your shadow fade?
I don't know, I don't know
Someday
