

Let Somebody Love You

Written by Danni Nicholls and Sam Ashworth

Climb the mountain
Hold somebody's hand
Trust in Love
The softest place to land

You will fall
You will fall
We all fall down
Let somebody love you
When you touch the ground

The path is steep
So don't let go
Hope will keep
You afloat and lift your soul

You will fall
You will fall
We all fall down
Let somebody love you
When you touch the ground

You will fall
You will fall
We all fall down
Let somebody love you

It's too easy to keep yourself alone
There is someone waiting for your call
And I know, 'cause I've been there before

You will fall...

The path is steep
Hold somebody's hand
